Apache Camel on Quarkus

Apache Camel is the Swiss knife of integrating heterogeneous systems with more than a decade of history and a lively community of users and developers.

The support for Apache Camel on top of Quarkus is provided by the Apache Camel Quarkus project. Please refer to their documentation for more information.